SOCIAL NOTES

Miss Rose Boyd has returned to her home in Sabin, Minn., after a few days' visit here at the S. Denison home.

Quite a number of friends are to be guests Wednesday evening of Miss Norma Johnson, of First avenue south, who is to entertain at a Hallowe'en party.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Hawley are moving into their new home on Tenth street south. They have been living at the home of Mrs. Hawley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Blatchford.

The Scandinavian W. C. T. U. will meet Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 sharp, at the home of Mrs. P. G. Fosberg, 815 Third avenue south. All members are urged to be there, and friends of the union as well.

A meeting of the Roycroft club has been called for Thursday evening, Oct. 29, by Pres. W. B. Howland, and it is very important that all members should be present.

The last of the rushing parties this season of the Sigma Theta sorority of Fargo college, will be given Wednesday evening at the Gardner hotel, and will probably be in the nature of a Halloween party.

David Keyes, a pioneer of the state, formerly of Absaraka, who has been in the city for the past week visiting at the home of Harry Warmington, a distant cousin, and with the Joseph Matters family and other friends, left this morning for his home in Edmunds.

Mrs. Thomas Watt Gregory, wife of the newly-appointed attorney general of the United States, is a Texas woman, and has been prominent in social circles of Washington during her residence there. She was Miss Julia Nalle of Austin, Tex., before her marriage in 1893.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Plymouth Congregational church will give a New England supper at the church parlors next Friday evening, serving from 5:30 to 8 o'clock. Plans for the supper were made at the meeting of the society last Thursday, at the home of Mrs. Percy Sherwood.

A committee composed of Misses Arndt, George and Painter is working on a constitution for the High School Teachers' club, which was formed last Saturday evening at a meeting held at the home of Miss Ruth Guild, of Fourteenth street south. The committee is to report early next week, possibly Tuesday, and it is the club's intention to take up the study of sociology and modern poetry.

The members of the Y. W. C. A. Unity club are to enjoy a Hallowe'en party this evening at the association rooms, and are all to go masked, and in costume. Elaborate preparations have been made for the event, and a delightful time is anticipated. Each one attending is to be assessed a slight sum, to defray the expenses of the refreshments.

Following the regular lodge meeting tonight at Assembly halls, of Rebekah lodge No. 1, a Hallowe'en social is to be enjoyed. Part of it will take on a literary form, with explanations of the origin of Halloween and some of the customs observed in different countries, after which there will be Hallowe'en stunts, and refreshments in keeping. The hall has been appropriately decorated for the occasion.

Minneapolis workers for the French and Belgian Relief fund are hoping to receive big sums from their entertainment tomorrow afternoon and evening, to be given in the Radisson ball room. Artists of that city have given their talent for the benefit of the wives and widows, children and destitute aged in the countries ravaged by war, and Mrs. Alma Johnson Porteous, Eugen Skaaden, Mme. Cecile Murphy Skaaden, Henry J. Williams and others are to be heard that afternoon and evening.

A new plan is to be tried at Fargo college this year in entertaining the students on Hallowe'en. Members of the faculty have invited groups of students to their homes and a good time is assured. Dean Robinson, Dr. Stratton, Professor Fish, Dr. Elmer, Mrs. Hubbell, Professor Vowles, Dr. Stearns, Dr. Bivin, will entertain at their homes. Miss Foster, Miss Tyler, and Professor Musberger will entertain at the college. President and Mrs. Hansel will entertain at the Gardner. Miss Perley will assist Professor and Mrs. Freeman in entertaining at their home.

At the International Council of Women in Rome last May three strong declarations against war and its attendant evils were heartily indorsed by delegates from twenty-five countries representing several million members. The International Woman Suffrage Alliance, composed of over 1,000,000 women from twenty-three countries, has frequently declared for peace and has just presented a petition to President Wilson by its president, Mrs. Chapman Catt, and its secretary, Mme. Rosika Schwimmer of Hungary, imploring him to find a way of mediation in the present terrific struggle.

Complimentary to Miss Helga Holt and Robert McIntyre, the latter of Casselton, who are to be married Wednesday evening, a family party was given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. William Lemke, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McIntyre, and Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Farmer, at the Lemke home, 823 Third street north, at which their respective families were guests. The bridal couple were presented with the family wedding presents on this occasion. The evening was spent in playing cards, after which a delicious lunch was served. Pink carnations formed the decorations. Mr. McIntyre arrived in the city last evening from Casselton.

Among the press comments from different sections of the country regarding Mrs. Florence Ewell Atkins, of Tennessee, are the following: "It is probable there was never a lecturer who delivered an address in Cordele, Ga., who held the undivided interest of an audience as did Mrs. Atkins. She is a remarkable, polished, magnetic and highly cultured speaker." "One of the strongest pleas for statewide prohibition ever heard in Nashville was the one delivered on Sunday afternoon by Mrs. Florence Ewell Atkins. It was not only logical and convincing but it made the heart beat faster, and caused the eyes of the hearers to fill with tears." "The charm and magnetism of Mrs. Atkins would be difficult to describe. She is wonderfully popular." Mrs. Atkins speaks at the First Baptist church in Fargo, Friday evening, Oct. 30, at 8 o'clock.

Grand Forks Herald: Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Olson and little daughter, Miss Helen, of Fargo, spent Sunday in the city as guests at the home of Mr. Olson's sister, Mrs. W. B. Galbraith, of Walnut street. They returned home Monday morning and were accompanied by Mrs. Galbraith, who will be their guest for a short time. She expects to return home Wednesday.

Miss Lenore Dosland, whose home is at Perley, Minn., has entered St. Luke's hospital in this city for a nurse's training course. Miss Dosland has been in Los Angeles, Cal., for the past year.

Miss Lee Aaker was hostess Monday evening to the L'Glaml club, numbering eight young ladies, who spent the evening with their needlework. Later a delicious lunch was served by the hostess.

Misses Elma and Ellen Johnson have issued invitations, in Hallowe'en form, for a Hallowe'en frolic at which they are to entertain at their home, 1217 Fourth avenue north, next Saturday evening. It is to be a sheet and pillowcase party, all the guests being bidden to don ghostly costume.

The members of the Young Ladies' auxiliary of the home economics section of the Fine Arts club met in regular session Monday evening at the Ceres hall lecture room, at the A. C. The program consisted of a review of some articles in the Housewives' League magazine, by Miss Virgila Stephens, and was of much interest.

Mrs. S. H. Crothers, of Ninth street north, entertained the New Era club Monday evening at her home, and gave a paper on Local Government in the New World. Other papers were on the Federal System in America and Europe, by Mrs. A. C. Lacy; Holy Alliance and Democracy, by Mrs. Heins; and Democracy in the New World, by Mrs. Duncan Fisher. A parliamentary drill was also a feature of the program, and following the discussion of the study topics, a social hour was enjoyed. Mrs. A. C. Lacy, of Seventh street south, will be hostess at the next meeting, in two weeks.

Another pre-nuptial party in honor of Miss Ferryl McCarthy, a bride of November, was given Monday evening in Moorhead by Misses Myrtle Oliver and Mollie Martinson, at the Oliver home, and at which about twenty young ladies were guests. Miss McCarthy was presented with a linen shower, and after the gifts had been inspected, the evening was enjoyed with various amusements of a Hallowe'en nature. In keeping with the season, the gifts were presented in a suitcase decorated with yellow, and the rooms were all decorated with various Hallowe'en symbols, such as witches, cats, and pumpkins. Music and dancing also furnished entertainment, and late in the evening the hostesses served lunch.

The drama section of the Fine Arts club enjoyed an enthusiastic meeting Monday afternoon at the Civic Centre. The afternoon was devoted to the reading of her original play, a dramatization of the Biblical story of Ruth, by Miss Abbie L. Simmons, of the A. C. Though it is hard to improve upon the Biblical story itself, Miss Simmons' dramatization is very beautiful, and carries throughout the drama the prose rythm, which makes it very effective. This dramatization is to be staged some time this winter, and one feature of the production is to be a Hallelujah chorus. The drama and music sections are to have charge of the program to be given at the Fine Arts club's open meeting at the Grand theatre, Nov. 9, when that organization plans to entertain all the other clubs of Fargo and Moorhead.

Mrs. Johnston Wagner, of 509 Fourth avenue south, Moorhead, is entertaining at an at-home this afternoon, complimentary to her cousin, Mrs. Johnston Campbell, of Spokane, Wash. The guest list numbered sixty-five, and in the receiving line with the hostess and guest of honor, were Mrs. James Aylen and Mrs. W. R. Tillotson. Assisting in the parlor were Mrs. R. W. Richards and Mrs. W. D. Titus. Dainty refreshments were served in the dining room to a few at a time, and presiding at the tea and coffee tables respectively, were Mrs. W. J. Awty and Mrs. J. H. Sharp. Mrs. R. Grant Price, Miss E. Alice Kirk, and Miss Elizabeth Richards assisted in the serving, and Annie Titus was at the door. The rooms were beautifully decorated with pale yellow chrysanthemums and ferns, in an effective arrangement, and the affair was a charming one throughout.

Another of the enjoyable A. C. faculty teas planned for the ensuing year, was given Monday afternoon, when Mrs. A. H. Parrott and Mrs. W. F. Sudro entertained at an at-home at the Parrott residence, 1042 Eleventh street north. Their guests, seventy-five in number, included the ladies of the A. C. faculty and others connected in various ways with the college. The affair was a most enjoyable one throughout, and a splendid way of making the faculty ladies acquainted with each other. A color scheme of pink and green prevailed in all the rooms, and the dining room and other decorations consisted of pink roses and ferns, with pink candles used also in the dining room. The same colors predominated in the dainty refreshments. Mesdames J. W. Ince and A. E. Minard assisted the hostesses in the parlor, in making the guests acquainted with each other, and Mesdames W. A. Yoder and E. F. Ladd presided at the coffee tables in the dining room. Assisting in the serving were Misses Margaret Keene, Rizpah and Rosella Ladd, and Eloise Waldron.

One of the most enjoyable sorority social affairs of the season so far was the turkey dinner given last evening by the members of the Eti Chi Omega, of Fargo college, at the home of its president, Miss Selma Schwarz, on Fourth avenue south. Dr. and Mrs. Stearns were the guests of honor, and other guests were Mrs. A. F. Schwarz and Mrs. C. F. Amidon, the sorority's patronesses, six of the new girls in the college, and a dozen of the young men from the college, there being six of the active sorority girls there, and one or two former active sorority members. The dinner was served in four courses, and was a delicious repast. The participants were seated at two long tables, which were beautifully decorated with pink American beauty roses, and ferns, in an artistic arrangement. Mrs. Schwarz was toastmistress, presiding in her usual charming manner, and those responding were: Dr. Stearns, on Social Life in the College; Mrs. Amidon, on Ye Early Days; Mr. Musburger, on Fargo College; and Miss Selma Schwarz, on 1915. Miss Lucy McGrath, one of the charter members of the sorority, who came over from Barnesville for the event, also responded to a toast. While the tables were being cleared the young people went for a "penny walk", and upon their return the boys chose fortunes which awaited them. Fortune telling around an indoor campfire was enjoyed. Miss Frasier gave two vocal solos; Miss Leonora Schwarz, who now has a studio at Hillsboro, gave several piano numbers; Miss Alice Pearson gave a reading, a child's story; the Eti Chi Omega song and various college songs were sung, and Mr. and Mrs. Schwarz were given the college yell, for being such royal entertainers.

EIGHT FROM STATE TO NATIONAL W. C. T. U.

In attendance at the National W. C. T. U. convention at Atlanta, Ga., which will be in session from Nov. 12 to 18 inclusive, will be eight well known W. C. T. U. workers from this state, including several from Fargo. Those who intend going from North Dakota are: Mrs. Elizabeth Preston Anderson, of Jamestown, state president and national recording secretary; Mrs. F. W. Heidel, of Valley City, who has been state treasurer for four years, but who resigned this year, and who will go as delegate-at-large; Mrs. Edna F. Salmons, of Cando, present state treasurer, who has also been state franchise superintendent for the past year; Mrs. Fred Carr, of Valley City; and Mrs. J. M. Johnson, Mrs. Frank Gardner, Miss E. D. Santley and Mrs. A. W. Paulson, all of Fargo. Mrs. Paulson will go as state L. T. L. delegate.

The funds of the North Dakota W. C. T. U. have been devoted so largely this year to the fight for suffrage in this state, that the association finds it impossible to pay the expenses of its delegates, and in view of those circumstances, the representation from this state will be an especially good one.

The North Dakota delegation will go in a special car with the Minnesota delegation, from St. Paul, and upon reaching Chicago, this car will be attached to the White Ribbon special to Atlanta, making it possible for the delegates from North Dakota and Minnesota to make the trip without a change of trains.

BERNHARD'S ACADEMY FOR SELECT DANCING—At the Mansion, Sons of Norway hall, No. 309 Broadway, Fargo, phone 2444. Private Lessons and class instructions given daily from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m. SELECT ASSEMBLY DANCE every Thursday evening. We teach successfully, those who have failed at other schools.

PLAN CHARITY BALL FOR NOVEMBER 12

The annual charity ball to be given for the benefit of the free kindergarten conducted on Front street under the direction of Miss Kiefer, for the children of that neighborhood, will take place this year on the evening of Thursday, Nov. 12, at the Knights of Columbus hall. The younger ladies of the social set are backing the enterprise, as in previous years, and a number of them are already out selling tickets for this worthy enterprise.

A meeting is to be held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Edwin G. Clapp to complete arrangements for the ball and name the various committees, which will be announced later. The free kindergarten is kept up entirely by subscription, and very material aid is extended each year by the annual charity ball.

SUFFRAGE NOTES.

(Furnished by State Suffrage Headquarters.)

The following statistics, under the title of The Protected Home, are taken by the Saturday issue of The Woman's Journal, published in Boston:

"Deaths of infants under 1 year per 1,000 births by cities:

Lowell, Mass.	23.1
Fall River, Mass.	18.6
Detroit, Mich.	17.9
Seattle, Wash.	8.2
Los Angeles, Cal.	9.7
Dunedin, New Zealand	3.8

"(The three latter cities are in states or countries where women have the ballot.)—New York Tribune.'

The Journal says further:

"Almost every issue of the national anti-suffrage organ contains some glaring error of fact. Thus the September number asserts that the eight-hour law for women in Colorado applies only to occupations which require women to stand on their feet. Colorado's first eight-hour for women applied only to such occupations; but that law was thrown out by the courts years ago as unconstitutional. Colorado's present eight-hour law, which was adopted later, has no such restriction. And the article in which this out-of-date statement appears professes to be based upon a recent investigation!

"A. S. B."

Again the same publication states:

"More than 40,000 women voted at the Chicago primaries last month. This has been known ever since Sept. 11. Yet the current issue of the national anti-suffrage organ, which came out on Oct. 17, states on its first page, in big letters, that only 8,000 Chicago women voted. Comment would be superfluous.

"All the candidates for governor of Massachusetts this year are suffragists."

For the convenience of its patrons, a telephone has been placed in the suffrage rest room, the number of which is 729-J. A four-volume History of the Suffrage Movement is another recent acquisition to the rest room. Suffrage headquarters may be reached by phoning 759-J.

Mrs. Edward Nelson of Minneapolis left this morning for Manvel, where she will speak at a suffrage meeting to be held there today. The meeting will be held this afternoon in order that all may have a chance to come in to hear W. J. Bryan deliver his address.

Mrs. George Else writes from Antler that next Saturday is to be observed as Voters' day. Women will serve lunch in the public library and distribute literature among the people.

W. C. T. U. NOTES.

That woman suffrage and prohibition are closely associated is clearly indicated by the fact that five of the six states working for constitutional prohibition are suffrage states. As will be noticed, Ohio holds the unique position of combining the two reforms.

Frances Willard said: "God made man and woman to stand side by side, sun crowned; he made them to stand in a republic, as I believe, bearing equally its magnificent burdens. The mental and spiritual attitudes of good cheer and heavenly expectation are the only ones that will ever claim, promote and capture the victory."

The seven states which vote on woman suffrage this fall are North and South Dakota, Nebraska, Missouri, Ohio, Montana, and Nevada. The six states which will vote for constitutional prohibition are Colorado, Washington, Oregon, California, Arizona and Ohio.

NATIONAL SUFFRAGE MEET TO LAST FIVE DAYS

Nov. 12-17, inclusive, are the dates assigned for the forty-sixth annual convention of the National American Woman Suffrage association, which meets this year at Nashville, Tenn., soon after the close of the spirited campaign which has been waged in seven states of the union for equal suffrage. There will be delegates at Nashville from sixty member organizations, and the meeting is held there by invitation of the Tennessee Equal Suffrage league. The day sessions are to be held in convention hall, house of representatives, state capitol.

The first of the two issues which promise to dominate proceedings throughout the five days, is whether the vote should be sought by amendment to the federal constitution, or by state-by-state extension of the suffrage. Seven western states are to pass on the suffrage issue this fall, and if even two or three of them rule in favor the national amendment movement is likely to gain great force. The opposition, however, is counting on impetus to its cause at the meeting of the Southern States Woman Suffrage conference, which is to meet at Chattanooga Nov. 10 and 11. The conference believes in states rights, and will certainly plan to fight for its doctrine at the national convention.

The second of the issues is the two-pronged one of the suffrage measures now before congress. Many members of the national organization maintain, with the national board and Mrs. Medill McCormick, chairman of the congressional committee, that the Shafroth amendment to the constitution, introduced by the senator from Colorado, is the only way to secure enough equal suffrage states to make possible a straight woman suffrage amendment to the constitution, which has always been and still is the ultimate aim of the national association. The Shafroth amendment provides for submitting the question of woman suffrage to the voters in each state by initiative petition. But the congressional union backs the Bristow-Mondell amendment only. The union has a grip on the national association, through various of its leaders, who as heads of state societies are members of the national executive committee. Bound up with this difference is the congressional union's policy in holding the democratic party responsible for the non-passage of a suffrage amendment, and its action in working to defeat democratic candidates in the woman's suffrage states, a policy which Dr. Anna Shaw, the national president, has condemned as suicidal.

The annual election of officers, over which much interest is aroused owing to the fact that it is expected Dr. Anna Howard Shaw will not accept another term and her place will have to be filled by a younger worker, takes place on Saturday, Nov. 14.

Several places on the national executive board are to be filled. It is hoped that Miss Addams, first vice president, will reconsider her decision, but Miss Caroline Ruutz-Rees, third vice president, Mrs. Joseph K. Bowen, auditor, and Mrs. James Lees Laidlaw, auditor, are quite positive that other work will keep them from even considering a nomination. Mrs. Mary Ware Dennett, corresponding secretary, resigned in Ausust and therefore will, of course, not stand for re-election.

Thursday, Nov. 12, Governor Hooper, Mayor Howse of Nashville, Mrs. Crozier-French, president of the Tennessee State Suffrage association, and Mrs. Guilford Dudley, president of the Nashville Suffrage association, will extend the freedom of the state and city to the women of the convention.

Dr. Shaw makes her annual address Thursday evening, and the convention will celebrate the victories which suffragists have no doubt will be theirs Nov. 3.

Many brilliant social features are being planned, and Nashville women are arranging a parade—in itself, proof positive that suffrage enthusiasm has won over southern conservatism. There will be an old-fashioned barbecue at Andrew Jackson's home, the Hermitage, many dinners and luncheons, and an afternoon tea at one of the beautiful country clubs.

NOBLE-NICHOLS WEDDING

E. E. Noble of Beach and Mrs. J. H. Nichols of this city were united in the bonds of matrimony Monday evening at 6 o'clock in the parlors of the M. E. parsonage, by Rev. J. M. Walters. Harry G. Carpenter acted as best man and Misses Mae and Carrinne, daughters of the bride, were maid of honor and bridesmaid. Both were dressed alike, in light blue chiffon over crepe de chine, trimmed with pearls, and carried bridal roses.

The bride was beautifully attired in white crepe de chine, trimmed with Venice lace, and wore a veil caught with lilies-of-the-valley. She carried bridal roses.

Mr. Noble is well and favorably known in banking and business circles of North Dakota, and both have numerous friends who extend congratulations. They will visit in the twin cities and other points before returning to their home at Beach.

STATE WEDDINGS

At the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. T. Masters, at Hope, a week ago Monday afternoon, was solemnized the marriage of her oldest daughter, Ethel, to T. Franklin Dahl, of Minneota, Minn. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. Hitchcock, and the couple were attended by Deborah Masters and Leslie Dahl, sister and brother of the bride and bridegroom respectively. Mr. and Mrs. Dahl left for Minneota, and will be at home in that place after Dec. 15. The bride is one of Hope's popular young ladies. The Bridegroom is a prominent young business man of Minneota, Minn.

Mrs. Anna Cicha of Veeleyville has announced the approaching marriage of her daughter, Miss Mary, to Steven Novak. The wedding will be solemnized at the bride's home today, Oct. 27.

Grand Forks Herald: Mrs. John Franklin of 1405 University avenue has announced the approaching marriage of her daughter, Miss Sarah Elizabath, to John Henry Budge, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Budge, 401 South Fifth street. The wedding will take place Wednesday, Oct. 28, at 11 o'clock in the morning, at the residence of Monsignor J. A. Lemieux, and just the members of the two families will be present. Following the ceremony the bridal party will repair to the Franklin home, where the wedding breakfast will be served. The announcement of the wedding will be received with a great deal of interest by scores of friends in this city, as both young people are well known and popular. They are prominent in the social life of Grand Forks. The bride-elect is a graduate of St. Bernard's academy and for the past few years has been an assistant in the postoffice. By her charming manner and obliging ways she has won many warm friends among the patrons of the office. Mr. Budge has resided in Grand Forks since childhood, attended the local schools and for several years has been a member of the clerical force at the postoffice. He is popular among his associates and numbers his friends by the legion. Mr. Budge and his bride will leave on the afternoon train for a honeymoon trip to Winnipeg. They will be at home to their friends in Grand Forks at 1409 University avenue after Nov. 15.

The marriage of Miss Lena L. Skubinna to Alexander Sorga took place at the home of the bride's parents last week at Center.

A very pretty quiet wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lars Christensen on Thursday afternoon, Oct. 15, when Miss Ellen Foss and Gus Swensen were joined in the holy bonds of matrimony. The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Monson. The bride and bridegroom had just come over from Sweden, their home, where Mr. Swensen had been visiting since June.

At high noon last Wednesday Jens C. Jensen of Hayward and Miss Selma E. Thoeny of Williston were united in holy wedlock by the Rev. E. Lewis Wall at the Methodist parsonage. They will go to their claim at Howard.

Monday a week ago was a lively day in Page, especially at the Victor Wallace home in the north part of town, it being the occasion of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace's golden wedding anniversary. This was the first occasion of the kind ever celebrated in Page. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace were married in Dowagiac, Mich., on Oct. 19, 1864, where they resided until 1883, when they removed to North Dakota, Cass county and Page, locating what is now the Dennis farm, and residing there until 1892, when they moved on the farm known as the Victor Wallace place, three miles east of Page, where they resided until they removed to town. Mr. Wallace has been a member of the village board for many years and prides himself in being foremost in making Page and her streets the best. Mrs. Wallace is well known in church and social circles and is one of the leading state workers of the W. C. T. U. in North Dakota. At the celebration letters were read from Governor and Mrs. Hanna, W. I. Warrey, and Messrs. Robt. Hanna and H. R. Hartman, they being unable to be present. Besides many old friends from far and near, all the children were present, as were also the grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Chinese Belle to Wed Chinese Aviator.

Lily Tong, belle of Chinatown in San Francisco, is making preparations to leave for the Philippines, where she is to wed Tom Gunn, a Chinese aviator, who has a school of flying there. She is said to be one of the prettiest girls in Chinatown, and many wealthy young Chinese have sought her out. But the daring of Tom Gunn won her.

Recently he decided to go to the Philippines to establish a school of aviation. He hurried over and within a short time had money enough to send for her.

He was once offered a position as chief aviator in the Chinese army. But he feared the Chinese would be too superstitious to make flying safe there and he would not take the place.
